

KEY LEADER[®]

LEAD FACILITATOR

Annie Smith

Annie believes that young people are leaders today and that their contributions to improving communities are valuable assets. She strives to increase young people's confidence in their ability to make a positive difference in their communities.

Annie recently retired from United Way of Central Indiana and continues to serve her community through program evaluation and assessments for youth-serving organizations. She has more than 25 years of experience in the not-for-profit sector and with organizations such as Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, YMCA, boys and Girls Clubs, schools, faith-based organizations, alternative education programs, and the juvenile justice system. She is a skilled fundraiser, trainer, and facilitator/presenter, and has served on a variety of nonprofit boards in the Indianapolis area.

Annie enjoys music, art, and theater, and attended Butler University where she studied voice and piano. She and her husband, "Smitty," are proud parents of six children. They reside in Indianapolis and are members of Mount Carmel Baptist Church.
