

KEY LEADER[®]

LEAD FACILITATOR

Doug Peters

High-energy, fun, humorous, and resourceful are four words often used by others to describe Doug Peters. Outside of the amazing work of Key Leader, Doug serves as an Office Coordinator at the Center for the Advancement and Study of International Education (CASIE) in Marietta, GA. He is responsible for organizing office operations and events with CASIE in collaboration with its various partners, including the International Baccalaureate, Project Zero (a research center of The Harvard Graduate School of Education), the Washington International School, and Atlanta Public Schools.

Doug received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and a Master of Education degree in Higher Education Administration from Georgia Southern University. His student-centered approach stems from seven years of experience working in collegiate student affairs.

Doug has an interest in event planning, mentorship, student engagement, and serving the community. He enjoys binge-watching the latest Netflix shows, reading novels, riding the scariest of roller coasters, and traveling in his spare time.
